LO: I can reflect on the thoughts of characters

At the end of page 5, it says ‘It’s an alien,’ gasped Harr. The alien waved. ‘Hello, Harry,’ burbled the alien. ‘Can I come into your bedroom, please?’

Discuss what both Harry and the alien might be thinking. Draw them in the space below and write their thoughts in the bubbles.

The image shows a large rectangular box containing two thought bubbles. Each bubble is a cloud-like shape with a scalloped edge and three horizontal lines inside for writing. The bubbles are connected to three smaller circles of decreasing size, representing the thought process. The entire scene is enclosed in a black rectangular border.
